February Memory Verse: Psalm 139:13-18 NIV

February Spiritual Practice: Communion

Communion is defined as the sharing or exchanging of intimate thoughts and feelings with another. God seeks communion with us all day, every day. When we turn the attention of our hearts and thoughts to Him, we seek communion with Him as well. "My heart has heard you say, 'Come and talk with me.' And my heart responds, 'Lord, I am coming.'" Psalm 27:8

Communion throughout your day:

"I love the Lord, because He hears my voice and my prayers. I will call on Him as long as I live, because He has turned His ear to me." Psalm 116:1-2

One of the sweetest aspects of our communion with God is that He is always present with us. Sharing with Him, talking with Him, confiding in Him through a continual prayer throughout our day is where we practice friendship with God. It's our taking pleasure in God as He takes pleasure in us. Lord, may my mind wander into you!

May your every good, as well as every anxious thought, wander into God today, that you may experience God's kindness, presence, and power to heal, to comfort, to give peace through compassionate communion to Him.
