February Memory Verse: Psalm 139:13-18 NIV

February Spiritual Practice: Communion

Communion is defined as the sharing or exchanging of intimate thoughts and feelings with another. God seeks communion with us all day, every day. When we turn the attention of our hearts and thoughts to Him, we seek communion with Him as well. "My heart has heard you say, 'Come and talk with me.' And my heart responds, 'Lord, I am coming.'" Psalm 27:8

Communion as you begin each day:

"Tell me all about your faithful love come morning time, because I trust you. Show me the way I should go, because I offer my life up to you." Psalm 143:8
When you wake, resist the urge to pick up your phone, open your laptop, or turn on the TV. Instead, turn your attention to God. Find a quiet, comfortable space. Close your eyes and breathe deeply. Inhale peace, exhale anxiety, inhale love, exhale fear, inhale the goodness of God, exhale the chaos of this world, slowly. Center your thoughts on this verse. Ask God to invade your mind with the knowledge of His love. Tell Him you trust Him. Ask Him for guidance. Listen. Surrender your day to Him. Don't rush the conversation but be content to sit in His presence. Practice connecting with God in the morning.
