APRIL SCRIPTURE MEMORIZATION: PSALM 19:7-14

This week focus on meditating on and memorizing Psalm 19:7-8 (NLT):

The instructions of the Lord are perfect, reviving the soul. The decrees of the Lord are trustworthy, making wise the simple. The commandments of the Lord are right, bringing joy to the heart. The commands of the Lord are clear, giving insight for living.

APRIL SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: SCRIPTURE

Reading Scripture invites us to connect to the very heart of God. We can look at nature or into a baby's eyes and be overcome with God's beauty and creativity. But we connect to God's heart and character in reading His Word. The Bible sets God out before us. It can be tempting to read the Bible in search of ourselves or for a solution to our current problems. Ask yourselves what does this passage reveal about God? As we seek God in the pages of the Bible, God reveals Himself to us.

"Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he (Jesus) interpreted for them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures." (Luke 24:27)

Protecting the Time

Practice starting your day in God's Word, whether a single verse, multiple chapters, or anything in between. In protracted seasons of interrupted sleep, I found reading Scripture at night and then processing/journaling in the morning to be most helpful. Seasons change and sometimes schedules get flipped. Ask God to help you set up a consistent time to read His Word, and then protect that time.

"Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I entrust my life." (Psalm 143:8)
