MARCH SCRIPTURE MEMORIZATION: PSALM 23

This week focus on meditating and memorizing Psalm 23:6 (NIV) Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: FASTING

Fasting is to go without food to give your whole self more fully over to God. The ultimate aim of fasting is to get in touch with our hunger for God. Hunger is a state of wanting or needing something you do not have. When we fast, we awaken our body and soul to its deep yearning for life with the Father. We become able to say with Jesus, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." (John 4:32) Fasting is a way to feed your spirit and starve your flesh, the part of each person that is bent towards sin.

This week, choose one day and purpose to fast until sundown, focusing on standing with the poor or underserved. As you fast, ask God to set your heart free of self-love and self-preservation and transform you into a person of Christlike love, choosing to give to and serve others. As hunger pains come, pause to pray for those who experience these often. Consider praying Matthew 25:40 or simply, "God, show me how to love people like you do."

Go without food until sundown on the day you choose. Then, eat a simple meal in gratitude.
