APRIL SCRIPTURE MEMORIZATION: PSALM 19:7-14

This week focus on meditating on and memorizing Psalm 19:9-10 (NLT): Reverence for the Lord is pure, lasting forever. The laws of the Lord are true; each one is fair. They are more desirable than gold, even the finest gold. They are sweeter than honey, even honey dripping from the comb.

APRIL SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: SCRIPTURE

Reading Scripture invites us to connect to the very heart of God. We can look at nature or into a baby's eyes and be overcome with God's beauty and creativity. But we connect to God's heart and character in reading His Word. The Bible sets God out before us. It can be tempting to read the Bible in search of ourselves or for a solution to our current problems. Ask yourselves what does this passage reveal about God? As we seek God in the pages of the Bible, God reveals Himself to us.

"Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he (Jesus) interpreted for them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures." (Luke 24:27)

Reading in Community

Reading God's Word in community can be such a rich endeavor. We gain encouragement and/or accountability to keep reading. Hearing the perspectives of fellow believers help us to grow spiritually while promoting unity amongst the body of Christ. Use community apps, join in-person Bible studies, or process with a friend or spouse. Share with at least one other person how God is revealing Himself to you in His Word. "...But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15b)
