APRIL SCRIPTURE MEMORIZATION: PSALM 19:7-14

This week focus on meditating on and memorizing Psalm 19:13-14 (NLT): Keep your servant from deliberate sins! Don't let them control me. Then I will be free of guilt and innocent of great sin. May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

APRIL SPIRITUAL PRACTICE: SCRIPTURE

Reading Scripture invites us to connect to the very heart of God. We can look at nature or into a baby's eyes and be overcome with God's beauty and creativity. But we connect to God's heart and character in reading His Word. The Bible sets God out before us. It can be tempting to read the Bible in search of ourselves or for a solution to our current problems. Ask yourselves what does this passage reveal about God? As we seek God in the pages of the Bible, God reveals Himself to us.

"Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he (Jesus) interpreted for them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures." (Luke 24:27)

Transforming

Reading God's Word transforms our hearts. The Bible is the clearest, most complete way God has chosen to reveal Himself to us. So as we read, looking for God in the stories and teachings of the Bible, our questions, confessions, prayers, and praise bubble up. And, slowly but surely, His thoughts become our thoughts and His ways become our ways. As you read this week, what is God revealing to you about His character?

"All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)
